COMMANDERS CORNER

Welcome to March everyone. We've had a great February. I want to thank everyone who helped make our Super bowl potluck a great success, especially Don and Cindy who put the silent auction, and Leo who ran the 50/50 raffle. The silent auction raised over $1000, and the 50/50 was almost $400. Thanks again. Thanks to everyone who came out and brought great food.

March brings our Post anniversary and "old Soldiers ball" to celebrate. The ball will be on 29 March tickets are available. Our post will be 105 years old this year, for perspective the VFW is 125, ours is one of the oldest post around, something to be proud of.

March brings the first round of nominations for elected positions, with voting in April. If you're interested and have questions feel free to ask me.

If you haven't been to the club for dinner or breakfast in a while, I recommend you make it down. The new manager Dawn, the bartenders and our kitchen crew (Rachel and Pam) are all doing a great job, thanks for all your efforts.

As always, it's my honor to serve as Commander of VFW Post 379.

Hello VFW Members,

With appreciation, we thank VFW Post 379 for supporting Yakima QOV's efforts in Yakima County. The Quilts of Valor Foundation has awarded over 403,000 Quilts of Valor since 2021. Go to www.qovf.org for more info. I'm very proud of each member's dedication to our service members and veterans and your support of our group. Yakima QOV has awarded over 300 Quilts of Valor in your and my community since July 2021. Last year, we increased our awards by 55 QOV, a significant growth made possible by an increase in membership and community support, totaling 148 veterans comforted with Quilts of Valor in 2024! We look forward to 2025, comforting many more in our communities, and your support. Shirleen Wilhelm, GL, and Members of Yakima QOV.
